Arthur Stewart will read from his new book, Rough Ascension and Other Poems of Science, at the Feb. 5 meeting of the Knoxville Writers' Guild. Stewart is an aquatic ecologist and ecotoxicologist, with a Ph.D. from Michigan State University. He retired from ORNL last year, but remains adjunct research professor in the UT Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology. In addition to his scientific publications, he has had literary essays published in Big Muddy, the Bulletin of the Ecological Society of America, and Breathing the Same Air. His poetry has been published in The Sow's Ear Poetry Review, Quantum Tau, Eclectic Literary Forum, Now & Then and many other publications. See p. 4 for excerpts from a review of his new book.

The program will be held at 7 p.m. at the Laurel Theater, 16th and Laurel. The meeting is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. A $1 donation is requested.
